§6-61-43 Rules of evidence. Neither the commission nor a hearings officer is bound by the common law rules relating to the admission or rejection of evidence. The commission or hearings officer may exercise its own discretion in these matters, limited only by considerations of relevancy, materiality, and repetition by the rules of privilege recognized by law, and with a view to doing substantial justice.

[Eff JUL 17 1992] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 269-6,

§6-61-44 Rulings. (a) The presiding officer shall rule on the admissibility of evidence and on any oral motions made in the course of the hearing. The presiding officer may issue a ruling after taking the matter under advisement. The presiding officer's rulings may be reviewed by the commission in determining matters on their merit. (b) When objections are made to the admission or exclusion of evidence, the grounds relied upon shall be stated briefly. Formal exceptions to rulings are unnecessary and need not be taken.

(c) An offer of proof for the record shall consist of a statement of the substance of the evidence to which objection has been sustained.

§6-61-45 Prepared testimony. (a) With the approval of the presiding officer, a witness on direct examination may read into the record or summarize the witness' prepared testimony. Before any testimony is read or summarized, unless excused by the presiding officer, the witness shall deliver copies of any prepared testimony to the presiding officer, the chief clerk, and all attorneys or parties. Admissibility shall be subject to the rules governing oral testimony. If the presiding officer deems it in the interest of orderly procedure or if substantial savings in time will result, the prepared testimony may be received in evidence without reading, provided that copies of the prepared testimony are served upon all parties and the commission at least five days before the hearing, unless otherwise directed by the presiding officer.

(b) To promote an orderly hearing procedure, prepared testimony and exhibits that are filed with the commission in advance pursuant to a prehearing order shall be received in evidence without reading. Witnesses may summarize their prepared testimony during the hearing. Any amendments to the prepared direct and rebuttal testimony shall be served upon all parties and filed with the commission in accordance with the prehearing order or as the presiding officer directs. A party introducing totally new matters by revisions or supplements shall attach a sworn affidavit explaining why these matters were not submitted with the direct testimony. The commission may, if the explanation is unreasonable, reject the amended testimony. Notwithstanding that prepared testimony and exhibits are placed into evidence by this subsection, the parties to the proceeding may, during the hearing, object on evidentiary grounds to the admissibility of all or part of the prepared testimony or exhibits and move to strike the same. Notwithstanding that an applicant's or respondent's testimony and exhibits are in evidence, a party will not be precluded from presenting any motion it deems appropriate after the close of the applicant's or respondent's case.

(c) Prepared testimony shall be legible and on paper not exceeding 8-1/2" x 11 inches. Testimony shall be:

- (1) Double spaced;
- (2) Printed on only one side of each page; and §6-61-46 Documentary evidence. (a) If relevant and material matter offered in evidence is included in a document containing other matters, the offering party shall designate specifically the matter so offered. If other matters in the document would unnecessarily encumber the record, at the discretion of the presiding officer, the relevant and material matter may be read into the record or copies or portions thereof received as an exhibit and the rest excluded. Other parties may examine the document and offer in evidence other portions which are material and relevant.

(b) Documentary exhibits shall be legible and on paper not exceeding 8-1/2 x 11 inches or bound or folded to that size where practical. Whenever practicable, pages of each exhibit shall be numbered, and data and other figures shall be in tabular form.

(c) When exhibits are offered in evidence, the original and eight copies shall be furnished to the

(a) If any matter in a document on file as an official record with the commission is offered in evidence, it may be received in evidence by reference, unless otherwise directed by the presiding officer, provided that the particular portions of the document are specifically identified and are otherwise relevant and material to the issues.

(b) If testimony in another proceeding before the commission is offered in evidence, a copy of the material and relevant portions of the transcript shall be offered as an exhibit unless the testimony was summarized, in which case a copy of the material and relevant portions of the prepared testimony shall be offered as an exhibit.

(c) Admissibility shall be subject to the rules governing oral testimony. [Eff JUL 17 1992] (Auth: §§91-2, 269-6, 271-9, 271G-7) (Imp: HRS §§91-2, 269-6, 271-31, 271G-23)

Stipulations for a protective order, subject to the commission's approval, may be accepted in lieu of motions for protective orders. §6-61-51 Correction of transcript. A party may move to correct the transcript within fifteen days after receipt of the transcript. The movant shall serve a copy of the motion upon all other parties. The motion shall certify the date when the transcript was received. If no objection to the motion to correct is served and filed within ten days after service and filing of the motion, the commission or hearings officer may issue an order making those corrections. If any party objects to the correction, the commission or hearings officer shall determine whether the correction should be made, with due consideration given

DECLARATORY ORDERS

§6-61-159 Who may apply. On the petition of an interested person, the commission may issue a declaratory order as to the applicability of any statute or any rule or order of the commission.
[Eff: JUL 17 1992] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 91-8, 269-6, 271-9, 271G-7) (Imp: HRS §§91-2, 91-8, 269-6, 271-9, 271G-7)

§6-61-160 Declaratory order by commission. The commission may, on its own motion or upon request and without notice or hearing, issue a declaratory order to terminate a controversy or to remove uncertainty.
[Eff: JUL 17 1992] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 91-8, 269-6, 271-9, 271G-7) (Imp: HRS §§91-8, 269-6, 271-9, 271G-7)

§6-61-161 Form and contents. A petition for declaratory order must conform to the requirements of subchapter 2 and contain the following:

- (1) The name, address, signature, and telephone number of each petitioner;

§6-61-161

- (2) A designation of the statutory provision, rule, or order in question, together with a statement of the controversy or uncertainty involved;
- (3) A statement of the petitioner's interest in the subject matter and the reasons for submission of the petition;
- (4) A statement of the petitioner's position or contention and a memorandum containing a full discussion of reasons and legal authorities in support of that position or contention; and
- (5) Proof of service on the affected public utility, motor carrier, or water carrier and on the consumer advocate.
[Eff JUL 17 1992] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 91-8, 269-6, 271-9, 271G-7) (Imp: HRS §§91-2, 91-8, 269-6, 271-9, 271G-7)

§6-61-162 Commission action. (a) Within forty-five days after the submission of a petition for declaratory ruling, the commission shall:

- (1) Deny the petition in writing, stating the reasons for that denial;
- (2) Issue a declaratory order on the matters contained in the petition; or
- (3) Set the matter for hearing, as provided in subchapter 3.

(b) If the matter is set for hearing, the commission shall render its findings and decision, unless otherwise indicated at the time of the hearing, within thirty days after the close of the hearing or, if briefs are filed, thirty days after the last brief is filed. [Eff JUL 17 1992] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 91-8, 269-6, 271-9, 271G-7) (Imp: HRS §§91-2, 91-8, 271-9, 271G-7)

§6-61-163 Dismissal of petition. The commission may, without notice or hearing, dismiss a petition for declaratory ruling that fails to comply with the requirements of this subchapter. [Eff JUL 17 1992]
(Auth: HRS §§91-2, 91-8, 269-6, 271-9, 271G-7) (Imp: HRS §§91-2, 91-8, 269-6, 271-9, 271G-7)

§6-61-164 Refusal to issue declaratory order. The commission may, for good cause, deny the petition or refuse to issue a declaratory order by giving specific reasons for that determination. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the commission may so refuse where:

- (1) The question is speculative or purely hypothetical and does not involve existing facts or facts that can be expected to exist in the near future;
- (2) The petitioner's interest does not give it standing to maintain an action if petitioner were to seek judicial relief;
- (3) The issuance of the declaratory order may affect the interest of the State in pending litigation or in litigation that may reasonably be expected to arise; or
- (4) The matter is not within the jurisdiction of the commission. [Eff JUL 17 1992]
(Auth: HRS §§91-2, 91-8, 269-6, 271-9, 271G-7) (Imp: HRS §§91-2, 91-8, 269-6, 271-9, 271G-7)

§6-61-165 Request for hearing. Although in the usual course of disposition of a petition for a declaratory ruling no formal hearing will be held, the commission may order a hearing. Any petitioner or party in interest who requests a hearing shall state the reasons why a hearing is necessary and, to the extent that the request for a hearing is based upon factual assertion, shall attach an affidavit establishing the facts. If the commission orders a hearing, the provisions of subchapter 3 shall govern the proceeding. [Eff JUL 17 1992] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 91-8, 269-6, 271-9, 271G-7) (Imp: HRS §§91-2, 91-8, 269-6, 271-9, 271G-7)

§6-61-166 Applicability of order. An order disposing of a petition for a declaratory order applies only to the factual situation described in the petition or if, a hearing is held, as set forth in the decision and order. [Eff JUL 17 1992] (Auth: HRS §§91-2, 91-8, 269-6, 271-9, 271G-7) (Imp: HRS §§91-2, 91-8, 269-6, 271-9, 271G-7)
